

*Joanne
Klauke-LaBelle*

MOTIVATIONAL SPEAKER

Walk a Mile

specializes in customized workshops and motivational speeches focusing on the effectiveness of a positive mental attitude, communication and overcoming and succeeding within life's seemingly endless pitfalls.

Joanne Klauke-LaBelle is an internationally renowned speaker whose accomplishments have been recognized by the "Live with Regis and Kelly Show" as well as "Flare" "MacLean's" "Canadian Living" and "Today's Parent" magazines. Joanne was also recently named as a "Canadian Woman of Distinction". Through personal tragedy, Joanne founded, marketed and built a successful youth charity (Harmony) and in 2005 was called upon to work with the youngest victims of Hurricane Katrina. Joanne has battled through serious health problems including cancer, kidney disease and an auto-immune disorder all the while maintaining her energy and enthusiasm to work and volunteer 70+ a week.

Using her abundance of experience, Walk a Mile offers speech topics that include:

- Life is a Choice
- Living with a Disease, and LOVING IT!
- Working With Youth What Motivates You?
- The Journey
- Not All of Us Singing the Same Note
- Birthing a Charity

Walk a Mile can also adapt topics to fit your particular function.

Topics include:

Working with "at-risk youth"
Building a successful Charity
Motivating volunteers
Effective grant writing
Living with a disease
Overcoming bureaucracy
Keeping the momentum
Stomp out bullying

Workshops

Walk a Mile has developed great techniques to help youth workers learn to use the arts to help youth release pent up energy and emotions. "Stomp out Bullying" is a workshop that has been very popular and successful in both the Public and Private School Boards. Youth workers have benefitted greatly, learning simple techniques to help youth release energy in positive ways.

Drumming Circles

Drumming circles offer a unique and powerful way to connect to co-workers, youth, or volunteers. Learn how to use this wonderful method to express yourself, release energy, as well as open yourself up to each other in a safe and constructive methodology.

Walk a Mile is known for entertaining, informative and interactive speeches for large and small venues. Joanne will captivate your audience, while bringing thought provoking ideas and inspiring stories for all to use for their betterment. All Walk a Mile fees must include transportation, accommodations and per diem.

For specific information on fees for your next event, call or e-mail:

519-383-2797

walkamilewithus@gmail.com