Beyond the Blues: Child and Youth Depression

Sarnia Justice Film Festival will be screening Beyond the Blues: Child and Youth Depression on Saturday, November 12, 2011 at the Sarnia Public Library Theatre at 7pm. Admission is free.

Statistics reveal that depression in children and youth is on the rise. In fact, it has increased by one-third in the past 30 years. Untreated depression costs a teenager in many ways: lost educational opportunities, lost social opportunities and lost time.

Through the personal stories of three young people, this compelling documentary traces the journey of depression, from early signs and symptoms, to assessment, diagnosis and treatment. The documentary also helps shatter some stereotypes. Depressed kids don't just have a bad attitude--they have an illness. And the illness is treatable.
